

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or a page from a book. The text is arranged in approximately 15 horizontal lines. The script is dense and appears to be a form of classical Arabic, possibly including religious or philosophical content. The ink is dark, and the background is light, though there is some fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is written in a cursive style, with some words being more prominent than others. The overall appearance is that of an aged, handwritten document.
