Handwritten text in Arabic script, densely packed and written diagonally across the page. The text is highly cursive and appears to be a collection of notes or a manuscript page. The script is dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The text is written in a style characteristic of the Ottoman or Persian periods, with many ligatures and a high degree of fluidity. The lines of text are roughly parallel to each other but follow the diagonal orientation of the page. There are some larger, more prominent words or phrases that stand out from the surrounding text. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical document.
